

Thunder Force

(a.k.a. Tunda Force international) started out in 1998 in Jamaica, Montego Bay, St. James, playing at parties, Stage shows, clashes, and at dancehall venues. Thunder Force did a Jamaican tour in 2000, and is currently in Switzerland. The sound will be available for bookings until August, 2005 in Switzerland. The Thunder Force team consists of Gonzales, Don P, Curly and Dexter. The sound is known for its annual stage show, Jammin in Da Hills; which is produced by Thunder Force in association with Gargamel Promotions (Buju Banton). The Thunder Force team is also known for its mix CDs: Mad Sick, Madder Sicker, and Culture Shock, which are favorites in Jamaica, and the U.S. including New York, Boston, and other U.S. cities.

Gonzales and Don P are currently operating the sound in Switzerland until August, 2005; while Curly and Dexter are handling the Jamaican operations. The sound is currently available for bookings in both countries.

Thunda Force Is ruffPack & Solida Sound in Atelier Volant, Lausanne